

A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living. - Luke 15.13